In debate Robert Cowan and Miss Ora Fox were successful over Misses Marie Greaser and Marie Rice. The subject debated was "Resolved, that military training should be required in high schools." Misses Greaser and Rice took the affirmative while the negative was debated by Mr. Cowan and Miss Rex.

Henry Hall won the oration over his opponent Clarence O. Dodd. The subject of Mr. Hall's oration was "Patriotism" while that of Mr. Dodd was "The Spirit of the Flag."

The judges were E. M. Musgrave, of the agricultural department of the Fairmont high school; Guy Crigler, principal of the White school and Howard J. McGinnis, of the Normal school faculty.
